

'Rona Call: A Community-Info Phone Tree

We need news and information to stay safe and healthy. For those not online, access to critical information is limited and many have no way to lifting up their needs to local officials or the wider public.

Pick up your neighbors by picking up the phone. Pass this on to continue the phone tree!

Questions? Contact us at:
newsvoices@freepress.net.

Learn more about what you can do to strengthen local news at:

www.newsvoices.org

CALL 5 PEOPLE YOU KNOW IN YOUR CITY OR TOWN

who wouldn't be on a video call or do not have internet access. Ask these questions:

--> WHAT INFO DO YOU NEED

and what questions do you have to stay safe and healthy in your community right now?

--> WHAT IS HAPPENING

in your community that shows resiliency/solutions/support?

--> MAY I SHARE

your answers and your contact info with a journalist or organizer?

FOR EACH PERSON YOU CALL,

visit our online form to submit your results.

Spanish web page: bit.ly/covidtelefono

English web page: bit.ly/covidinfotree

If you don't have internet, call (704) 729.4493 to submit results.

THE NEWS VOICES TEAM WILL GATHER THE RESPONSES, share them with newsroom partners, and support newsrooms to address information gaps identified by community members.

We'll also share with local organizers to support mutual aid efforts.

IN THE PULITZER PRIZE-WINNING WORDS OF KENDRICK LAMAR:

"We Gon' Be Alright!"